

MY FURSONA

- My name is Ruby
- I'm a Female Skunk. I'm more human-like then feral looking.
- I'm 5'10", 150 lbs, and a little on the curvy side.
- I have Normal Black fur, with a white striped design on my back and along my tail, and a
- I have blueish/greenish eyes, and 2 foot long head of hair, dyed purple with blond highlights, (right now, but my hair changes frequently.) I like my hair straightened most of the time.
- I got a Large fluffy tail, used to wrap myself in when I'm sad, depressed, or sleeping(almost like a fluffy ball) also used to hug for whenever I sleep. I use it also to hide from time to time when I'm shy. (I'm sorry! I love the idea of my tail!)

Personality

- I love color! I maybe black and white, but I think everyone should color themselves to match what they see inside. (I just won't dye my fur. Too much work to make it look nice! And dressing myself sucks if I need to match colors with my colored fur. Black and white can go with nearly every color. Hair is easy to work with!)
- I'm totally Superhappy/Spaztastic about rainbows!
- I'm shy around strangers, but super energetic around friends and family, and super random around my closest friends :D
- I enjoy games, education, cooking, being with friends, and helping the world.
- I kinda daydream a bit too much. ^-^; One of those things are...:
- I dream of being a superhero, fly though the sky and save the day/world one day.
- I really hate injustices, or prejudiced actions. I normally step up and will put myself in harms way to help the whoever is being bullied.
- People some times say I'm weird or crazy, but I say life is short; if ya let what other people around ya dictate what is normal, then you will never see what life can really become.
- I always put everyone first, sometimes forgetting about my own wants and needs.
- And yes... I love to snuggle and cuddle!

Clothing styles

- Most of the time, I wear a design Tee, and denim bell-bottom jeans with a custom cut, sewn, and button in the back side of the pants to allow my tail to comfortably fit though.
- Other times, I wear a low cut rainbow top that shows a little midriff, and a rainbow skirt that goes to the lower thigh area. Raver-ish kinda style! I wrap my tail around my legs to make sure my tail doesn't move in a way to reveal what I don't want to be seen.
- Rarely, I do dress up in a big puffy dress with makeup and I go though the day in that dress.
- All the time, I have 4 scrunchies on my wrists. (Colors always change! COLOR!!!)
- I like to wear heels or normal running shoes that fit my lower paws. Finding good shoes are always a pain, sometimes literally.
- If I'm home, most of the time, I go naked, unless I have someone that's a guest, but if only any of my closest of friends are with me, I'll ask if they don't mind.
- And at times, I like to wear country clothin' style. Overalls, denim pants, or a leather skirt, with a denim jacket, and a random top.

Smaller Details

- I got 2 piercings. 1 on both of my ears. Most of the time, I have something small, but cute and colorful in the piercings.
- I love water, and I spend a lot of my time in the lake. If I'm not at school, work, home, or with my friends, I'm at the lake. I'm at the lake so much, I actually carry a 2 piece in my purse at all times!
- Oh yeah! Speaking of work! I work at a game store! YEAH!
- This maybe a bit embarrassing... but I still have my scent gland. :/ I really only use it when the ones that I'm close to are in danger. I might have gotten it removed a long time ago, but I find that I kinda need it in the most unpredictable times.

- I love playing with swords (Sorry, too many video games ^-^; .) I'm actually able to wield one fairly well. But I would love to learn to wield one like those fictional characters in those games. I do carry a sword at times in one of the belt-loops of my jeans... depending on if the local enforcement don't mind me carrying one around.
